1. Are you overall satisfied that your program will offer you the outcomes that you sought when you enrolled?
2. If you were to do it all over, would you enroll again, and if not why?
3. Do you believe that completing your program will leave you better prepared and able to find a better or different job and/or help you to earn more?
4. If you have struggled with the coursework, have you sought help? Was help easy to access and useful to you?
5. Do you expect to complete the program on the timeline you originally planned, and if not why?
6. To what extent are you able to meet with your instructors outside of class?
7. Do you have other concerns with the quality of the education or other concerns about the school?
8. Do you feel that you were pressured to enroll?
9. Were statements made by your enrollment counselor or financial aid representative about the available jobs in your field, the speed with which you could complete the program, how much you could earn, or how easy it is to transfer that you now believe may not have been accurate?
10. Were there representations made to you in advertising materials, or by the recruiters, or financial assistance staff that were not correct?
11. Do you feel like you're getting what you paid for?
12. Are you enrolled in the program you originally planned to pursue, and if not why?
